NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF HOMOEOPATHY

The NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF HOMOEOPATHY, (NIH) Kolkata, is an autonomous institution under the Dept. of AYUSH, Ministry of Health & Family Welfare; Government of India. It is a model academic institute of Homoeopathy in the country. The institute has been thriving for excellence in homoeopathic education, outstanding patient care and research. It imparts both Under Graduate (BHMS) and Post Graduate (MD) courses in Homoeopathy. The Institute is affiliated to The West Bengal University of Health Sciences, Kolkata.

Kolkata, is the cultural city of India which produced eminent personalities like Sri. Ramakrishna Paramahansa, Swamy Vivekananda, Dr. J.C Bose, Nobel Laureates like Rabindra Nath Tagore , Mother Teresa and Amartya Sen. It is the pioneer city of Homoeopathic practice, and education. The path initiated by the Romanian traveller Dr. John Martin Honigberger in 1830's was further continued by Dr. Mahendra Lal Sarkar, Late Babu Rajendra Lal Dutta, Dr. P.C. Mazumdar, Dr. B. N. Banerjee and Dr. Younan. It is also the city which has produced stalwarts like Dr. B.K. Bose, Dr. J. N. Kanjilal, Dr. B. K. Sarkar, Dr. B. N. Chakraborty and others. It is the city where the first Homoeopathic College was established in the year 1878 and considered to be the cradle of Homoeopathy in India.

The NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF HOMOEOPATHY (Department of AYUSH; Government of India) along with Central Council for Research in Homoeopathy, Central Council of Homoeopathy, Homoeopathy Pharmacopoeia Laboratory, major professional organizations and business houses, is organizing the International Seminar on the Recent Advances in Homoeopathy at Kolkata on 19th to 21st February, 2010.
